Announcements

We extend a warm welcome to our guests who are visiting today! Plan to stay after the sermon for refreshments and then study and discussion of the topic presented by our speaker.

We want to especially welcome our guest speaker and musician from Boulder, Colorado: Elia and Dena K. and family. They will be involved with The One Project in Seattle this next week where people from all over North America gather to share stories and ideas for growing our walk with Christ in our work place, church, and home.

Social Event Today!

What: Taco Feed

When: Today! After church

Where: Teryl Monson's home

Who: Everyone is invited.

Why: For fun and a time to get together and socialize with each other!

Our "Talent/No Talent Show" is scheduled for March 12th! Can you sing, read a poem, dance, do a skit or, maybe juggle? Or want to show how you can't do those things? Get creative!

If anyone is interested in volunteering at the Anacortes Senior Center, Sally has some projects. One idea is the need for someone comfortable on the computer who can communicate with the Anacortes American via Internet at the end of each month with the Senior Center newsletter info. This can be done from your own home. A second project is for people willing to be trained as assistant financial counselors for people in need in our community. Please contact Jenny or Sue.
